

January 6, 2006

Martin Luther King Jr. Challenge 2006

On January 16, the CHEC center will present the 3rd annual MLK Challenge. Provided with only $75 and a van, each team will have 6 hours to complete a service project benefiting the local community. Let your problem-solving, creative, and communication skills shine in this exciting event. Individuals and groups welcome. Bring your enthusiasm!

MLK HOLIDAY SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

10:00 a.m. Kick-off

[Stern Ballroom]

- Breakfast & coffee provided
- Challenge Assignment Game (New!)

10:30 a.m. Depart for Challenges

- Lunch provided (on-site)

5:00 p.m. Candlelight Vigil

[Stern Ballroom]

- Public welcome
- Team Presentations (Be creative!)

Individuals or groups may sign up at the Service Learning Web site:

www.cofc.edu/studentaffairs/service_learning/events.html

Tutors Wanted

The School Education's Center for Partnerships to Improve Education needs students to tutor 10th graders at Burke High School 10th in Math, Reading, or Writing at least one day a week from January to April 2006. Applicants should be education majors or have experience tutoring in these subjects. Non-education majors must provide a letter of recommendation. There is a two-hour training session. Tutors will be compensated at $15/hour. For more information, please contact Melanie Hofmann at (843) 953-2742 or hofmannm@cofc.edu.

VOLUNTEER FOR FAMILY WEEKENDS AT CAMP BOGGY CREEK (FLORIDA)

Camp Boggy Creek, a camp for children with chronic and life threatening illnesses, needs volunteers for its family weekends. The camp's mission is to enrich the lives of these children and their families by creating camping experiences that are not only fun and memorable but physically safe and medically sound as well. For more information, please visit www.boggycreek.org or contact Robin Brubaker at (352) 483-4200 ext. 293.

CONTACT US

Phone: 843) 953-5838

E-mail chec@cofc.edu

Location: RM 203 Lightsey Center (by appointment)