SPRING IS FINALLY HERE, SO GO VOLUNTEER!

As the spring 2005 semester winds down, you might find yourself with a bit of free time between studying for exams. You are in luck, because the CHEC Center has been receiving numerous volunteer requests lately! Our purpose is to set you up with a volunteer opportunity. We constantly have new requests filtering in, and one is bound to fit your schedule and interests. So whether you need to fulfill hours for class or just have an interest in helping out, stop by any time. We will also work with any club or group that is interested in getting involved.

ASAP OPPORTUNITIES!

RELAY FOR LIFE will be held this Friday, April 15 from 7pm to 7am. You don't have to stay the whole time! Location is at Stoney Field Stadium next to the Citadel.

Call: Krystal Myers at (803) 984-3117

BRITTLEBANK PARK needs volunteers to help build a buffer garden. Dates and times: April 16 & 23 from 9am-Noon and 1pm-4. Water and snacks provided. Bring gardening tools! Make a difference in the environment.

DONATE TO MOVE OUT, HELP OUT: MAY 2-7, 2005!

CHEC is happy to announce the return of Move Out, Help Out. Don't want to haul away your extra stuff at the end of the year? We need it! Furniture, clothing, lamps, kitchen and household appliances – we can use it all. Donate items at the POD in G Lot (behind Rivers Hall)--Monday May, 2 through Saturday, May 7. Come 1-5pm M-F and 9-3pm Sat. All of the items will be sold during our first "Trash or Treasure" sale this fall to raise money for Alternative Spring Break 2006.
