

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN DRAWING

The Department of Studio Art at the College of Charleston seeks artist-teacher to work within the Drawing program. The Department comprises five major areas of study: Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Printmaking, and Photography. Drawing is, by far, the Department's largest area, serving both Studio Art majors and non-majors, and employing three full-time instructors plus part-time adjuncts.

Candidates must have a significant professional exhibition record in Drawing and at least one of the following disciplines: Painting, Sculpture, Printmaking, and must already have an MFA and at least 3 years college level teaching experience beyond "teaching assistant." This is a tenure-track position. AA, WMA, EOE.

Applications must include:

Cover Letter

Current Resume

Recent examples of personal work, not more than 20 slides or images on CD

5 Printed Images of personal work

Student Work, not more than 20 slides or images on CD

Teaching Philosophy

Three References – names and complete contact information

SASE

Send Applications to:

Drawing Search

Department of Studio Art

School of the Arts

College of Charleston

66 George Street

Charleston, SC 29424-0001

Deadline for applications: Jan. 5, 2009