

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Part-Time Museum Interpreter Opportunity

Where: The Powder Magazine Museum
Location: 79 Cumberland Street, Charleston, SC
Compensation: $10 an hour
Hours: 12 □ 15 hours per week

General Description:

Individual will be interpreting the colonial history of Charleston and The Powder Magazine Museum. Individual will also be participating with educational programming and gift shop/retail responsibilities. Powder Magazine employees often dress in 18th century period attire (provided). Work schedule will be arranged on a monthly basis, work dates will vary. Individual should anticipate working 2 or 3 days each week (Approximately 12 □ 15 hours).

Skills/Requirements:

- Communicate well and in a positive fashion.
- Ability to present and relate historical information to others.
 - Familiar with the history of Charleston.
 - Possess basic cash register skills.
 - Flexible work schedule.

For an application:

Please send an e-mail request to PowderMag1712@bellsouth.net or stop by The Powder Magazine (Wed □ Sat, 10am □ 4pm)